Aaron Gafni represents clients in a wide variety of corporate and transactional matters, ranging from entity formation and structuring to equity financings, joint ventures, and mergers and acquisitions.

Aaron advises entrepreneurs, start-ups, and middle-market companies across a broad range of business sectors, including technology and digital media, food and beverage, health and wellness, apparel, and branded consumer products.

He has particular experience representing venture-backed growth companies, often working with such clients from initial formation to successful exits. Founders rely on Aaron's experience with convertible note and SAFE financings, preferred stock financings, corporate governance, day-to-day transactional matters, and mergers and acquisitions.

Aaron is the head of partner and associate recruiting at Greenberg Glusker.
