David Kramer represents businesses in a diverse array of transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, venture capital financings, debt financings, and national branding and licensing agreements.

While assisting clients in all industries, he has developed a depth of knowledge in advising branded consumer products, technology, entertainment, and cannabis companies. He also counsels emerging growth companies throughout the various stages of their corporate lifecycles, as well as investors and funds who finance early-stage companies. David devotes time to know his clients and understand their goals so that he can offer practical, business-centric advice to accomplish their specific objectives.

David has been quoted in Law360, Law.com, and Spectrum 1 News, and has had speaking engagements across the country.

David graduated from the UCLA School of Law, Order of the Coif, and earned his master's degree in Middle Eastern and Islamic Studies from New York University.
