

James Han

Partner

JHan@ggfirm.com

Ph. 310-201-7442

Fax 310-201-2315

James Han is a partner in the Greenberg Glusker Real Estate group.

James practices in all aspects of general real estate law with an emphasis on the representation of private and institutional real estate investors and lenders, such as opportunity funds, investment banks, developers and operators, in connection with joint venture transactions, real property financing, workouts and restructurings, and acquisition and disposition of commercial projects, including hotels, resorts, residential developments, office buildings and retail centers. He has worked on numerous transactions relating to all aspects of the hospitality industry.

He received his J.D. degree from New York University School of Law in 2003 and B.A. degree in History and International Relations from Stanford University in 2000.

Professional Affiliations

- Member, Council of Korean Americans

Awards

- Listed in Los Angeles Times as a "Commercial Real Estate Visionary," 2022

Bar Admissions

- California

Education

- New York University School of Law (J.D., 2003)
- Stanford University (B.A., 2000)

Languages

- Korean

Representative Experience

- Represented affiliates of a multinational conglomerate in more than thirty disposition transactions involving office properties in Arizona, California, Illinois, Utah and Washington.
- Represented a technology company in the acquisition of land parcels in Silicon Valley for potential development.
- Represented a REIT in the acquisition of a portfolio of multiple office properties located in eleven states.
- Represented a co-investment venture in acquisition and financing transactions involving various super regional shopping centers in the United States.
- Represented a private investment firm in multiple financing transactions involving various office properties, including restructuring of a portfolio of twelve loans with more than fifteen office properties as collateral.
- Represented a co-investment venture as a lender in a deed-in-lieu transaction involving a luxury mixed-use condominium tower.
- Represented a developer in a construction financing transaction in connection with the development of a continuing care retirement community.
- Represented opportunity funds and other investment companies in hotel acquisitions and dispositions, joint ventures and financings, including transactions involving, among others, Fairmont Hotel San Francisco, The Mayflower Hotel, Novotel New York Times Square, Courtyard Long Beach, Fairmont Orchid Hawaii, Hyatt Place Waikiki Beach, Westin San Francisco Airport, Hyatt Regency St. Louis, DoubleTree Metropolitan – New York, Sheraton Denver, Sheraton Dallas and Four Seasons Hualalai.