

James L. Swearingen

Associate

JSwearingen@ggfirm.com

Ph. 310-785-6816

Fax 310-201-4453

James practices commercial and corporate litigation with a focus on real estate, entertainment and first amendment disputes.

He has successfully represented clients throughout all phases of litigation in federal and state courts throughout California from initial pleadings through discovery, mediation and arbitration, including appellate matters in state court proceedings.

Before coming to Greenberg Glusker, James worked at a boutique family law office in Santa Rosa, California. He graduated from the University of Oregon with a major in Psychology and a minor in Business Administration. He earned his J.D. from the University of California, Davis, where he held board positions on the Moot Court Honors Board and the Business Law Journal.

Bar Admissions

- California

Education

- University of California, Davis School of Law (J.D.)
 - Business Director, UC Davis Business Law Journal
 - Neumiller Co-Chair, Moot Court Honors Board
 - Witkin Award Recipient
- University of Oregon (B.A., 2012)
 - Psychology
 - Business Administration (minor)

Media

March 28, 2017

Finally, a Win for Brokers; California Court of Appeal Recognizes a Limitation to the Statute of Frauds
AIR CRE

February 8, 2017

Statute of Frauds Trumps Statute for Friends and Broker Loses $925,000 Commission
AIR CRE