Jillian Berk is an associate in Greenberg Glusker's Litigation Group.

Jillian is passionate about advocating for clients in a broad range of litigation matters, with a special focus on trust and estates litigation and other high-stakes fiduciary disputes. She has successfully brought and opposed both dispositive and other motions, including discovery motions and motions for summary judgment. She has also assisted with researching and drafting briefs in state and federal appellate matters.

While in law school, Jillian gained litigation experience defending eviction lawsuits through the East Bay Community Law Center's Housing Clinic and assisting with code enforcement lawsuits at the San Francisco City Attorney's Office. In 2018, she received an American Jurisprudence Award for outstanding performance in Advanced Legal Writing.
