

Josh Geller

Associate

JGeller@ggfirm.com

Ph. 310-201-7460

Fax 310-201-4452

Josh Geller is a litigator whose practice focuses primarily on entertainment and intellectual property litigation.

Josh has significant experience representing studios, production companies, video game publishers, musicians, graphic artists, and other independent content creators. He assists clients in navigating all stages of the litigation and dispute resolution process, including pre-litigation counseling, trial, and alternative dispute resolution. He also has significant appellate experience, litigating before both the California Supreme Court and the Ninth Circuit.

Representative experience includes:

-Fifty-Six Hope Road Music Limited, et al v. Jammin Java Corporation: Obtained multi-million dollar trademark infringement award affirmed by the Ninth Circuit.

- Apple, Inc. v. Mobile Star, LLC: Secured favorable settlement in multi-party trademark and copyright infringement suit against Apple, Inc.

- Successfully resolved complex insurance and environmental dispute representing the County of San Bernardino.

- Litigated complex constitutional and administrative law issues in a labor dispute before the California Supreme Court.

Josh graduated, cum laude, from Yale University with a B.A. in Classics. He earned his J.D. from Harvard Law School in 2013, where he was a Supervising Editor of the Harvard Law Review.

Bar Admissions

- California, 2013

Education

- Harvard Law School (J.D., 2013)
 - Harvard Law Review
- Yale University (B.A., 2010)

- Classics and Classical Languages, Literature, and Linguistics

Media

February 12, 2019

Days' Numbered? Sony Trying To Kill Soap, Producer Says

Law360

February 11, 2019

'Days Of Our Lives' Producer Swats "Audacious" Sony TV With $20M Lawsuit

Deadline Hollywood

January 10, 2019

Coffee Co. Must Pay $2.4M To Marley Family In TM Fight

Law360